

Grant awarded for Garden of Surging Waves

The Daily Astorian | Posted: Friday, June 8, 2012 10:30 am

Astoria Mayor Willis Van Dusen, was presented with a grant from Oregon Community Foundation's Judith Bigby Monday night.

The grant supplies the city of Astoria with $25,000 for the Garden of Surging Waves.

The Foundation made a total of $216,000 in grants to Oregon Coast nonprofits during its recent spring grant cycle. These grants were part of more than $8.7 million in grants made statewide.

These included $2,000 to the Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific in Astoria to provide needy children with clothing, $2,000 to the Women's Resource Center in Astoria, and $1,000 to the North Coast Land Conservancy in Seaside.